(Optional) Are there any committees on the above Management Teams that specifically stuck out to you?

Please answer the following questions in 300 words or less.

- 1) The athlete's oath for Special Olympics is "Let me win, but if I cannot win let me be brave in the attempt." This oath helps remind all of us to be brave in the work we do as a committee, on campus and for the athletes throughout the year. What does bravery mean to you? Can you expand on a time in your life when you expressed your own bravery?
- 2) A large part of planning this year's Fall Festival will involve being adaptable to the unexpected situations that come our way. Describe a time when you were faced with an unexpected situation. How did you respond to and learn from this situation?
- 3) What fictional character (TV, Movie, Book, etc.) do you most relate to? Please elaborate on why you believe this to be true.
- 4) An overarching goal of Special Olympics is to spread the mission of inclusion, and as ambassadors of this mission, members of the Special Olympics committee strive to be active advocates for diversity, equity and inclusion not only for our athletes, but also within our own campus community. How would you support these ideals as a member of the 2021 Special Olympics Committee?

We may be unable to accept all applicants onto Committee. However, we promise to give everyone the ability to spread the mission of Special Olympics should they wish to. If you are not placed on Committee this year, there will be several opportunities to get involved with Inclusion Crew, Athlete Practices, Unified Events, Fundraising Events among various other events throughout the year. Certain events will be changed and modified to ensure COVID regulations are being met so be sure to stay in touch for the latest updates. We will continue to communicate with you regarding these opportunities throughout the year!
